St Paul, Minnesota, 1922

A black and white photograph of a large group of people, including adults and children, posing in front of a house. Handwritten names are visible on the photo, identifying individuals like John, Earle, Carl, and others. The group is arranged in several rows, with some people sitting on the ground in front. The house has a white door and a window with a flower box. A large tree is on the left side of the house. The photo is mounted on a dark album page.
